Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD entitled AVPR Alien vs. Predator Requiem: Extended Edition is classified as: Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

The disc contains a feature which is said to be the extended version of a 35mm film (AVPR Alien vs. Predator Requiem) previously examined and classified by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The film version (OFLC No. 703039) was classified as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years", with the descriptive note "Contains violence". This decision was registered on 11 December 2007. The DVD version of the feature is approximately two minutes longer than the film version. Any difference in the main feature is difficult to locate.

The additional components consist of two commentary tracks for the feature, two website notices, several entertainment notices, and a trailer for another publication. These components do not provide grounds to alter the classification given to the original publication.
